THIRD ARMY POURS ACROSS SAAR RIVER

Yanks Battle To Enlarge Toehold On Siegfried Line

BULLETINS
London, Dec. 4.—(P)—The Allies have captured the Alsace junction town of Selestat, the German News Agency announced today. The fall of the town, the broadcast said, meant "narrowing the fighting area near Colmar to some extent." Colmar is 13 miles south of Selestat.
New York, Dec. 4.—(P)—A Blue Network broadcast asserted today that the Roer river stronghold of Jülich "is entirely in American hands." This would mean that the Roer had been crossed, since the main part of the town lies east of the flooded river.

By the Associated Press
Paris, Dec. 4.—American Third Army tanks and infantry, fighting for enlargement of their toehold in the Siegfried Line, poured across the Saar river today on the newly-captured bridge at Saarlautern, after smashing organized resistance in most of that industrial city.
Today's Allied communique said fighting still was continuing in the eastern part of Saarlautern, factory city, most of which was reported in American hands yesterday.
The bulletin confirmed that the Saar river bridge at Saarlautern had been captured intact, but said it was under heavy enemy artillery fire.
The speed with which Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's men forced the river apparently heralding a quick opening of the battle for the Siegfried line in the Saar basin, a front dispatch said.

British Second Army troops have made good progress in their drive to wipe out the last German bridgehead west of the Maas river in Holland and have reached the river bank near the demolished Venlo bridge, Allied headquarters announced today.
Last previous reports had placed the British vanguards 1,000 yards from the river at this point. The communique said that all but a few small pockets in the bridgehead had been mopped up.
In the battle area beyond Aachen, U. S. First Army troops, attacking at three points on a 12-mile front, made an assault crossing of the Inde river and captured the towns of Inden, Lucherberg, Luchen and Brandenberg. This drive along the blood-soaked approaches to Düren, 20 miles west of Cologne, rolled back the Germans' Roer river defenses a mile or more.
Nine miles northwest of Düren the American Ninth Army drove up to the Roer all the way from Linlich to Jülich—two main river strongholds. This army cleared the Germans from that part of Linlich west of the river and fought bitterly to extend its hold inside Jülich.

In Holland some points between Nijmegen and Arnhem were reported a foot under water as a result of flooding. The German radio said a German command force blew the lower Rhine dam south of Arnhem, flooding the British positions over a wide area.
On the southern end of the front American Seventh Army troops engaged in bitter street fighting in the communications center of Selestat, 25 miles southwest of Strasbourg, after repelling two tank-supported counterattacks. These American units were nearing a junction with other forces fighting down from Strasbourg.
The last snipers were being cleared from Strasbourg. The Germans blew up all three bridges there and withdrew to the east bank of the Rhine.

Eighth Army Is Locked In Heavy Battle
Rome, Dec. 4.—(P)—American Fifth Army troops smashed new enemy counterattacks south of Bologna today while the Eighth Army remained locked in heavy fighting between the Montone and Lamone rivers north of the Bologna-Rimini highway town of Faenza.
Simultaneously, Allied headquarters announced that Italian Fascist troops which the Germans began putting into the line a month ago have been deserting to Allied lines at a rate of 30 to more than 100 daily.
The Nazis yesterday took advantage of the fog and rain and attacked American positions at Monte Belmonte and Bombina, in the central sector of the front. They suffered heavy losses when the attacks were broken up.
A few German bombers again appeared over the Fifth Army lines but caused neither damage or casualties.
On the Eighth Army front in the southeastern sector of the Po valley the Germans in close range fighting held tenaciously to their positions south and southwest of Savenna.

PREMIER FACES CRISIS

BULLETIN
Athens, Dec. 4.—(P)—Gen. Catsotas, acting military governor of Athens, gave armed formations of the leftist Eam 72 hours notice today to quit the area as a consequence of Sunday's violent clashes. Numerous incidents developed into night-long shooting last night. Eam, the armed formations of the Eam, seized two government police barracks at Piraeus, the port of Athens. The streets of Piraeus were filled with striking dock workers armed with staves, knives, sticks and a few firearms. They were parading and shouting slogans. Apparently unorganized formations had taken up positions in air raid trenches with machineguns and had posted themselves in other points of vantage.
Athens, Dec. 4.—(P)—Greek Premier George Papandreu in a speech today charged that left wing factions were deliberately fomenting a civil war as a general strike left Athens without electricity, gas or communications. The radio was out and the government was unable to communicate with the people. A survey of hospitals in the city showed that yesterday's riot toll was 21 dead and 140 injured and wounded. Martial law has been declared in the city.
The strike has been threatened earlier by the left wing Eam (N. Turn to Page Nine)

Breaking out along the west bank of the Danube River, Russian forces have taken Pers in a thrust toward Austria, 100 miles away. Eger, in northeastern Hungary, has been captured by the Reds as they encircled Miskolc as shown on above map.

Storms Limit Activities On Leyte Island
General MacArthur's Headquarters, Philippines, Dec. 4.—(P)—American airmen made wide-ranging attacks on enemy shipping and supply bases on Leyte island today. The storms limited ground activity to minor patrol flights.
Fighter planes bombed Japanese supply bases at Valencia, about the middle of the Ormoc corridor, down which the U. S. 32nd Division is driving.
Off the north coast of Borneo patrol planes saw two 1,000-ton freighters and probably sank another. In this area also Australian heavy bombers attacked an enemy convoy, sinking a 3,000-ton freighter with direct hits.
Fighter-escorted attack bombers blasted installations on Mindanao, in the southern Philippines, said a communique from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters.
Heavy bombers dropped 135 tons of explosives on Palawan island, westernmost of the central Philippines group.

Soong Takes Over As China Premier

Chungking, Dec. 4.—(P)—Foreign Minister T. Y. Soong assumed the premiership of China today in a move which will enable President Chiang Kai-shek, as commander in chief of China's armies to concentrate fully on military tasks.
Soong stepped into his new post with his appointment as acting vice president of the executive Yuan, succeeding his brother-in-law H. H. Kung. He then was designated acting president of the Yuan.
Washington, Dec. 4.—(P)—Prospects for a working agreement between the Chinese Communists and the central government at Chungking are brighter now than they have been for many months.
Military authorities here understand that considerable progress has been made toward ending the deadlock between the two factions which has tied up possibly a million men who might otherwise have been useful in the war with Japan.

FATHER OF ERIE HERO FOUND DEAD IN OFFICE
Erie, Dec. 4.—(P)—The father of Col. Philip Cochran, much decorated army air hero of the African and China-Burma-India theaters, is dead.
He was Bernard J. Cochran, 65, head of the lien department in the city finance bureau, who was found dead at his desk last night. When he failed to return from the office after going there to do some extra work, another son, John, found him slumped over, apparently the victim of a heart attack.
His widow, and three other sons, Navy Lt. Paul Cochran, Washington; Air Cadet Thomas Cochran, Long Island, N. Y.; and Pvt. Joseph Cochran, now in India, survive. Col. Cochran has been on duty in Washington.

37,800 Workers Needed In Penna.

Harrisburg, Dec. 4.—(P)—Top urgency war plants in Pennsylvania need a minimum of 37,800 workers to meet production schedules, State Director Florian J. Boland, of the War Manpower Commission said today.
The drift of workers from war jobs to less essential employment and anxiety of some employers to get an early start on civilian production "have seriously menaced vital war production," Boland said in a statement.
Boland urged Pennsylvania workers and employers "to rally patriotically to the call for increased war production," which was sounded in a federal statement halting civilian reconversion in more than 100 labor shortage areas in the nation.

Confidence Vote For King Expected
Ottawa, Dec. 4.—(P)—Parliament's special session to debate the conscription crisis went into its ninth day today with the prospect that it would adjourn in a midweek vote of confidence in Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King and his new policy of partial conscriptions for service overseas.
He will be opposed by the official opposition, the Progressive Conservatives, who favor all-out conscription, and by some of his own liberal party members from French-speaking Quebec, who in accordance with the traditions of the province are against any form of conscription for duty abroad.
The government's plan is to conscript an initial 16,000 to provide urgently needed infantry reinforcements on the western front. By simple executive decree more could be conscripted later.

Appendectomy Is Performed By Warren Doctor at Sea

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, Dec. 4.—(P)—Naval authorities disclosed today that, as the battle for liberation of the Philippines opened last month, units of the United States fleet ran squarely into a tremendous typhoon which tossed even the heaviest battleships about like toys.
And at the height of the tropical storm, a medical officer aboard a baby carrier, the U. S. S. Natoma Bay, performed a successful operation upon a seaman who had been stricken with acute appendicitis.
As the little carrier pitched and rolled many men became ill, but it became apparent that it was no mere seasickness afflicting Leo J. Pagni, aviation ordnance man third class, of Cicero, Ill.
His condition was diagnosed by the Natoma Bay's Medical Officer, Lt. Comdr. Quay A. McCune, (510 Pennsylvania Avenue, east), Warren, Pa.
McCune went to work as the vessel shuddered under the smashing impact of the towering waves.
The surgery completed, Pagni was strapped into his bunk to prevent him from being heaved out on the deck, and by the time the storm had abated he was fully conscious and on the road to recovery.

Russians Smash Ahead In Hungary

Results were good, said the 20th Air Force communique. One squadron reported 75 per cent of its bombs fell within the target area. The prime objective was the Muzsachina engine factory of the extensive Nakajima aircraft plant, one of the empire's top producers of military planes. The plant, built compactly of one-story concrete structures, was the target of the initial E-29 raid there November 21, when considerable damage was inflicted.
Returning pilots from this fourth raid on Tokyo in 10 days described it as the toughest, but the most successful. Anti-aircraft fire was more severe and fighter interception stronger and more persistent than previously, but the bombing was carried out through cloudless skies.
The last squadrons to reach the target found large fires raging, whipped by an unusually high wind.
One Superfort was acknowledged lost.
An undetermined number of enemy fighters were shot down by the heavily-gunned E-29s. The communique said the late formations over Tokyo knocked down four fighters for sure and probably eight others.
Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced at Pearl Harbor, meantime, that Army Liberators on Thursday carried out their fifth raid in four days on Iwo Jima in the Volcano Islands, which lie athwart the aerial route from Saipan and Tokyo. More than 57 tons of bombs were dropped on Iwo Jima's airstrip and other installations.
Japanese raids against the 21st Bomber Command headquarters at Saipan have been launched from Iwo Jima since November 26 in efforts to knock out Tokyo's leading worry.

INDUSTRIAL TOKYO TARGET OF 4TH RAID
Fresh Ruins and Flame Follow Thunderous Bombing of Nipponese Capital
TOUGH BUT SUCCESSFUL
By the Associated Press
Saipan, Marianas Islands, Dec. 4.—(P)—Industrial Tokyo lay in fresh ruins and flame today in the wake of the fourth thunderous bombing raid, and the most successful by American Superfortresses based on Saipan.
A sizeable force of B-29s, striking in mid-afternoon yesterday, found the Tokyo area clearly outlined in sunlight and for an hour and a half unloaded their bombs with pinpoint accuracy, despite intense attack and swarms of interceptors.
Results were good, said the 20th Air Force communique. One squadron reported 75 per cent of its bombs fell within the target area. The prime objective was the Muzsachina engine factory of the extensive Nakajima aircraft plant, one of the empire's top producers of military planes. One of Greatest Battles in History Looms Along Roer
By WES GALLAGHER
With the U. S. Ninth Army in Germany, Dec. 4.—(P)—To American school children in the next 10 years, the Roer river may become as well known as the Argonne forest.
There are strong indications that one of the great battles of American history is going to be fought along the banks of this comparatively unknown stream.
In two weeks of fighting the U. S. Ninth Army reached the west bank of the river and the U. S. First Army came within artillery range of it.
At present the great percentage of German armored strength in the west, and about one-third of the infantry strength, is concentrated in 10 miles, centering on the Cologne plain, from Linlich in the north to below Düren in the south.
Since the total German strength from Switzerland through Holland is estimated at around 70 divisions, this gives a rough idea of the wall of men and machines the German high command has thrown up to block the entrance to the Ruhr.
If the Ruhr is lost, the Germans may be finished. To protect the Ruhr the Germans have massed a Sunday punch, trading territory for time in the south along the Third Army and Sixth Army group fronts.
The oncoming battle of the Roer has many ramifications which will make it one of the unique struggles in military history, but security regulations forbid publication of (Turn to Page Nine)

Bombers Are Curtailed By the Weather

London, Dec. 4.—(P)—Five rail arteries feeding supplies to German frontlines were smashed today by 1,200 American heavy bombers, escorted deep into western Germany by more than 1,000 fighters.
Headquarters said railroad yards and adjacent industrial installations at Kassel, Mainz, Gies-sen, Oest and Bebra were the targets of the heavy attack by British-based Fortresses and Liberators of the U. S. Eighth Airforce.
First groups returning reported German fighters failed to molest the bomber formations. Heavy cloud obscured the target areas and bombing was by instrument. (Turn to Page Nine)

U. S. U-Boats Bag 20 More Jap Ships

Washington, Dec. 4.—(P)—American submarines have bagged more Japanese ships, including a light cruiser and a destroyer.
Today's announcement by the navy brought the overall total of Japanese ships sunk by United States undersea hunters to 874. Of that number 82 are warships. In addition 37, including 11 combat ships, are listed as probably sunk.
The last previous report of submarine action was on November 25 when 27 enemy vessels were listed as destroyed, including two combatant ships.

NAZI DEFENSES ON SLOVAKIAN FRONT RIPPED

German Broadcast Says Major Enemy Force Has Reached Area of Lake Balaton

MISKOLC IS CAPTURED

London, Dec. 4.—Russian troops smashed ahead in southwestern Hungary today within 72 miles of the Austrian frontier and cracked strong Nazi defenses along the Slovakian border with the capture of Miskolc and Satoraljaújhely.
A German broadcast early today said a major Russian force had reached the area of Lake Balaton, which is 40 miles southwest of Budapest and at some points on the far shore only 45 miles from the Austrian border.
Miskolc, a vital military supply center for German and Hungarian armies, fell yesterday to Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Second army, elements of which joined with Gen. Ivan Petrov's Fourth Ukrainian army in taking by storm the communications junction of Satoraljaújhely, 45 miles to the northeast. Miskolc is 85 miles from Budapest and was bitterly defended by the Germans for several weeks.
In the drive west of the Danube toward the Austrian frontier, Marshal Fedor I. Tolbukhin's Third Ukrainian army captured Tamass only 21 miles below lake Balaton, in an 11-mile advance and seized Kaposméro, in the closest approach to Austria.
The fall of Satoraljaújhely strengthened the junction of the two great Russian armies, while to the north Petrov's troops increased pressure on the Slovakian communications center of Kassá (Kosice) prime objective of the sweep west from Ungvar.
Perhaps even more significant were the triumphs of Tolbukhin's army, which has been advancing at a rate of 10 to 20 miles a day south and southwest of Budapest.
The sustained successes of these forces gave rise to the hopes his drive would soon accomplish the three-fold tasks it faced when it breached the Danube a week ago: Storming Budapest from the rear; gaining the Austrian border in a strike due west, and cutting off escape routes from the lower Balkans by swinging along the Yugoslav frontier toward Zagreb.

Missing List Has Two From This County
Two more Warren county youths are reported missing in action in foreign areas, according to messages arriving over the weekend from the War Department.
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Richwalzky, Miller street, Sheffield, have been advised in a communication from the War Department that their son, Pfc. Paul W. Richwalzky, has been missing in action in Germany since November 11.
Pfc. Richwalzky was with Company F, 110th Infantry Regiment of the 25th Division and left for service March 29, 1942. He received his training at Camp Blanding, Fla.; Camp Robinson, Ark., and Camp Rucker, Ala., before going overseas. He was graduated from Sheffield High School with the Class of 1934 and was employed at Keystone by the Pennsylvania Gas Company. It is hoped that further news of him will be more encouraging, since his parents have received from him a letter dated November 13.
Pvt. John L. Mitchell, of Corry R. D. 2, in Warren county, is reported missing in action in France since October 24. He was serving with an infantry division.
His wife and three children are making their home at present with Mrs. Mary Pillar, of Tidioute.

Pittsfield Nurse Almost Hit By Bullet

Anna Anderson, Registered Nurse, who resides at Pittsfield, was almost hit by a bullet Saturday morning while at work in the kitchen of her home. She had just moved across the room when a bullet from a heavy rifle used in hunting deer crashed through the wall of her home and embedded itself in the opposite wall within a few feet from where she had been standing. The bullet was dug from the wall and is being preserved as a souvenir of a narrow escape.
During the morning a group of hunters had been noticed on the lands about the home and as many are seen in that section little thought was given to them. One of them must have fired at a deer and missing took its course into the home. The occurrence took place about 10 a. m. and the outcome proved most fortunate.

Heart-Touching Calls Are Awaiting Alias Santa Claus

Saturday's rush of shoppers and the copious fall of snow gave the Christmas season a real meaning and accentuated that the time before the holiday grows short. The Alias Santa Claus Fund realizes that the days are few for the getting in of the money for the fund and urges that all get their money sent to the fund as soon as possible.
Each year those who administer the fund find new and pathetic cases that must have attention and already there have been reported several cases to the workers. Some of these are heart touching and call for action if the little ones are to have a Merry Christmas.
It only requires a moment to sit down with the check book or to insert a few dollars in an envelope and address it to Alias Santa Claus, care Times-Mirror. Those dollars go so far and carry such a message of "Good Will Toward Men" that the more fortunate should not neglect the opportunity to contribute.
The Alias Santa Claus Fund has been carried for many years and there are few in the county who do not realize what a wonderful work it carries on. Hundreds know of its work and the care with which the fund is administered and with the demands this year heavy it is hoped that scores of new gift givers will be added to the rolls.
Give and give now!

Bell Herald's Good Tidings For Baptists

When the old First Baptist church bell tolled last Wednesday evening, members of the fire department and the police force called the church to know if the war had ended. No news quite so simulating had been received, but an event of importance to the nearly 500 members and many friends of the local parish was taking place, and as is the custom the old bell—placed in the tower of the old edifice on Liberty street in 1899 and removed to the new church in 1926—rang out the good tidings. This time it was heralding the total liquidation of the big debt which has existed on the church on Market street since its erection in 1926. As the flames consumed the mortgage, held in the hand by F. H. Erick, president of the Roger Williams Association which had so large a part in the lifting of this heavy financial burden, the familiar tones of the old bell were heard.

Truck Struck Frantz Car On Penn. Ave

An automobile crash on Pennsylvania avenue at Hertzel street Sunday morning was investigated by the police department. The 1941 Buick car of Dr. C. J. Frantz was hit by a truck of the Fleet Carrier Corp., Pontiac, Mich., and damage to the two machines amounted to about $250.

Dr. Frantz had entered his car in front of his home and pulled out into the line of traffic and was making a left turn into Hertzel street when the truck, proceeding east on the avenue, crashed into it. The truck driver was unable to stop due to the condition of the highway.

Police investigation showed the Frantz car to be damaged to the extent of $200 and the truck sustained damage amounting to $50. The matter was adjusted.

Unable to furnish bail Fisher was taken to Buffalo and placed in the Erie county jail. He will be brought to Jamestown today.

SHORT RATION PERIOD

The 11th period since whiskey rationing began will open today in the State Stores and it will be the shortest period in the rationing history, lasting only two weeks. Regulations call for one-fifth of a gallon of whiskey but quotas to licensees were increased to 80 to 90 per cent of their former base sales. Those who need inspiration for their Christmas celebrations will undoubtedly be given plenty of liquor. Ratio: 80:3 will again be used by civilians while service men will be required to present special military cards.

KETTLES ON STREETS

Saturday for the first time this Christmas season the Salvation Army had its kettles on the street. The Army does a large amount of work during the Christmas season for unfortunate folk of the community and the donations dropped into the kettle aid in financing the work. The workers in charge of the kettles face the cold and chills of the wintry blasts without flinching in an effort to bring cheer to many, and a little change dropped into the kettles will be just the least that the more fortunate can do to aid in the good work.

4 DAYS SEPARATE COUSINS

A son weighing eight and three-quarters pounds was born at 12:45 p. m. November 20 to Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Knight, 802 West Spring street. Mrs. Knight was formerly Miss Bernice Hartle, of Sheffield. The baby was named Larry Eugene. On November 24 at 8 p. m. a son weighing eight pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles William LaCaze at their home in Pleasantville. The baby was named Robert Neal. Mrs. LaCaze was formerly Miss Dorrit F. Knight, of North Pine Grove, Pa., and a sister of Howard Knight, and the baby boys were born only four days apart and are full cousins.

Obituary

Unless otherwise stated, visiting hours at Warren's funeral home are from 10 a. m. to 12; 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m.

WILLIAM BUNN SIMPSON

Franklin correspondent of the Oil City Derrick, William Bunn Simpson, 39, of 548 Third street, died suddenly from an attack of heart disease in the woods near Kinzua Friday at 9:30 a. m. while hunting deer.

Mr. Simpson was a member of a party of deer hunters who were in the Kinzua district yesterday morning, but his son, Clarence Simpson of Franklin, was the only member of the party with him when he was suddenly stricken and died within a few minutes. The body of the deceased was removed to Warren and last night was conveyed from Warren to the Buchanan funeral home in Franklin.

Mr. Simpson was born near Rockland in 1885, but he resided the greater part of his life in Franklin and vicinity. Possessing many fine traits of character, Mr. Simpson was held in high esteem by a host of friends. Surviving him are his wife, seven children, Mrs. Elia Brakeman, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Laura Belle Cramer, of Erie; Clarence Simpson, Franklin; Harry G. Simpson, who is in the U. S. Army and is stationed in California; Carl Simpson in the U. S. Army in France; Mrs. Edna Goan of Franklin and Miss Helen Simpson at home and two sisters, Mrs. George Abel and Mrs. Harry Haney, both of Franklin.

Arrangements for the funeral services had not been completed last night, pending receipt of word from Mr. Simpson's son in California.

ELLEN W. BEATY

Funeral services in memory of Mrs. Ellen M. Beaty were held from the family home, 226 Conewango avenue, at two o'clock Friday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. E. P. Plunkett, bishop of the Diocese of Erie.

Bearers for interment in Oakland cemetery were David Beaty, Edward Day, Norton Bowler, Howard Alexander, Harold Banghart and Floyd Clinger.

Accompanying Bishop Wroth from Erie for the rites was Mrs. Wroth.

MRS. CELIA WOOD

Mrs. Henry Johnson, of this city, has received word of the death of her sister, Mrs. Celia Wood, of Toledo, Ohio, at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Mrs. Wood made her home in Warren for some time but has been residing with her son, Harold Wood, at Toledo. Mrs. Wood also has a daughter, Mrs. Albert Anderson, of Temperance, Mich. An aunt and a niece, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Wood, of Clarendon R. D. and several other sisters also survive. Her husband preceded her in death in 1935. Funeral services will be held Thursday at Toledo.

CHARLES E. TAYLOR

Charles Henry Taylor, of Johnsonburg was buried this afternoon from the Ubel Funeral Home in Johnsonburg with interment there. Taylor was born in Sheffield January 29, 1912 and at the time of his death was employed in the Castanea Paper Mill at Johnsonburg. He suffered a serious brain operation in a Buffalo hospital and passed away here.

WRAY JACKSON

(Special to Times-Mirror) Word has been received here of the death of Wray Jackson, of Tacoma, Wash., who passed away in his sleep on October 13. He spent his boyhood days in Irvine with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Jackson, in the house now owned by Harold Crull. Many years ago he went to Tacoma and was employed by the Northern Pacific Railroad and expected to retire the first of next year. He was a close friend of Fillmore W. Nelson, of Los Angeles, who died five days after Mr. Jackson.

MAUDE I. STONESIFER

The funeral of Mrs. Maude I. Stonesifer, 19 West Third avenue, was held at the Lutz Funeral Home at four o'clock Friday afternoon. In charge was Mrs. Ernest Olson, reader for the First Church of Christian Scientist.

Those who came from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. C. Emerson Metzger, Tarentum.

Everybody reads the Times-Mirror.

First Look at London Proves Shock to AP Correspondent

By CHARLES FOLTZ, JR.

(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

London, Nov. 22—(Delayed)—(AP)—Since 1939 I've heard and read of people at war; in Switzerland, the Balkans and in Portugal. Until now I have never been in one of the United Nations at war. I've just left Spain, where the story of free men fighting was once almost submerged by German propaganda. For an American out of Europe, the first look at London is a shock.

We stepped off the Madrid plane, into an assembly plant line of swift movement. Papers and written material went into censor there—we got them back in London two days later. We confirmed our business to men who know it anyhow, then stepped into the London train.

White bread and good beer and hot food and warmth were found on the train and there was not a single step from the airport to London. The propagandists hadn't mentioned this.

Porters—yes, porters—were at the station. Phone calls, tuppenny each, confirm hotel reservations made by the airtel officials. They predicted we'd be sleeping in the streets, but were joking. Nobody sleeps in London's streets.

At the station we waited for a taxi. Our turn came. Five passengers got out and the driver said, "op in." We tried but found five American G.I.s already inside. "Mysterious guys, eh?" said the driver to the grinning G.I.s. "Commandos climb in from the street side. Out with you."

They climbed out grinning.

"Can't blame us for trying, Joe."

It's just a step out of the black-out into the lighted hotel lobby.

There tireless printers in a corner whip out the news of a free press.

Sheets of it hang like banners on lobby walls. Englishmen, Chinese, Americans, Russians, Austrians, Czechs, South Africans, Poles and Brazilians read the news from home and the fronts. If they don't like it, they say so.

In my room, I read a note under the glass of the telephone table:

"Guests are requested to inform the operator if they wish to be advised of air alarms." The suggestion is that it's better to sleep. I sleep very well.

In the hotel dining room there was dancing to a good orchestra.

When the sirens scream the night business goes on. Nobody runs, nobody stops.

By daylight you see the billboards proclaiming current plays, movie lectures, art exhibitions and girl shows.

In a pub, tossing off a hairpin with an old friend we heard a buzz bomb land. The barmaid threaded her needle and went to work darning somebody's sock without looking up. I, the newcomer, glanced at the door. A barrel or can in the street never missed a beat.

There was a woman operating a small steam shovel in the ruins of a blitzed building. I sat behind her in a bus and heard her tell a VAC friend that her last girl broke the night before. The American girl said she had an extra she could spare.

In the luncheon room an American GI loaned his tobacco pouch to a South African tank corps man.

In the theater, an English usherette told a newly arrived American engineer that his coffee—served on a tray at intermission—was nine pence. Not the nine shillings he offered. "What do you think we're running here, the Bank of England?"

An MP in a big U. S. army office building left his information desk to guide an English major somewhere. An American colonel on leave took over. He helped a Cockney electrician find the office where there was a short circuit. He called a restaurant to have a stenographer's lunch sent up. He told a GI where shoes were being issued and he guided the writer to the nearest bus station.

Cooperation. That's what astounds a newcomer to London who has had to listen for years to Dr. Goebbels.

Promotions In Scouting Are Approved

The applications for one Scout for the rank of Life Scout and one for the rank of Star Scout were approved at the November meeting of the Advanced Review Board it was learned this morning from H. L. Blair, chairman of the Scout Advancement committee of the Warren County Council, Boy Scouts of America. Recognition of these advancements will be made publicly at the Court of Honor scheduled for Friday, December 15th.

The rank of Life Scout was completed by James E. Richards, Jr., of the First Methodist church Troop No. 9 who became a Star Scout on October 29, 1943 and his application indicated that he had completed merit badges in the following subjects: first aid, physical development, personal health, public health, pioneering, safety, masonry, forestry, pathfinding, aerodynamics, carpentry, wood carving, firemanship and camping.

The rank of Star Scout was completed by Merle E. Welsh, Jr., of the United Brethren Church Troop No. 31 of Youngsville and his application indicated that he has completed merit badges in the following subjects: first aid, personal health, public health, safety, firemanship, cooking, and carpentry.

Members of the reviewing board were: H. L. Blair, chairman; Wm. M. Hill, Clayton M. Bannan, Floyd Conklin and Chester R. Seymour.

HUNTERS OUT AGAIN

With smoke rising from the countless camps in the woods of the county where parties of deer hunters are quartered the ranks of the hunters was augmented today with scores whose automobiles rolled out of the woodlands. The kill so far this season has been far below the average of other years. The fact that snow has clung to the trees and shrubs is given as one cause of the small kill and another is that the deer have not moved out of the woodlands due to the fact that feed has been plenty due to the late fall and the herds have not moved as much as in other years. A promise of warmer weather has cheered the hunters who have suffered much from the intense cold.

Only One Case Presented To Grand Jury

But one case is listed for trial before the December courts. The grand jury assembled this morning and the case of Leo J. Schuler, who was arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated was presented. This is the only case listed, and unless Schuler should enter a plea of "guilty" today the traverse jury will assemble tomorrow and a jury will be drawn for the trial and other jurors dismissed.

Inspiring Memorial Service Is Held By Warren Elks Lodge

The 52d annual memorial service of Warren Lodge No. 223, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, held in the auditorium Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, was attended by a large audience. The ritual was in charge of the officers of the lodge and the principal address was delivered by Hon. Allison D. Wade, a member of the order.

A feature of the exercises was the presentation of Medals of Valor to relatives of two members of the lodge who have made the supreme sacrifice in the armed forces since the beginning of the war—Glen K. Hyer, in 1942, and John H. Driscoll during 1944. Other members who passed away since the 1943 service were Ivan R. Greenlund, E. R. Tanner, John W. Borland, Wm B. Gaughn, Harold Amacher and A. L. Schellhammer. Since the first death in 1893 232 members of the order have passed away.

After an organ overture the program opened with a moment of silence in tribute to members in the armed forces, followed by the roll call of eighty names carried on the scroll in the reception hall of the building.

Prayer was offered by the Rev. Father Arthur J. Leon, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church followed by the memorial ritual by the exalted ruler, H. J. Harvey, and Chaplain R. L. Ruhlman. Mrs. Hazel Merenick sang "Nearer My God to Thee," after which the roll call of members who passed away during the year was read by the secretary.

Mrs. Merenick sang "In The Sweet By and By," followed by the impressive altar service, revised this year by the grand lodge in keeping with the country at war. Opening his inspiring address built around the theme of Lincoln's famous speech dedicating the battlefield of Gettysburg as a soldier's cemetery in November, 1863, Judge Wade said "We, the living, have assembled here to pay a special tribute to those who have died in the defense of our security and to the security of our republic. Rendering heartfelt sympathy for those who have lost loved ones through this great conflict is not enough. We must do everything possible to render actual aid not only to the dependents but also to the returning boys, so that we may be satisfied that in some measure we have shared the privilege of making a definite contribution."

The address was followed by the presentations of Medals of Valor to Dr. I. G. Hyer in memory of Glen K. Hyer, and to John H. Driscoll, father of John H. Driscoll, Jr.

The program closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and the concluding exercise by the exalted ruler and chaplain.

Times Topics

CHIMNEY FIRE
At 11 o'clock Saturday night firemen were called to 109 Grant street where a chimney fire was in progress. No damage was done.

LIBRARIES TO AID
Pennsylvania's 348 public libraries have been asked to aid the 6th War Loan drive by participating in a bond-selling contest. Original manuscripts and other prizes will be awarded to the libraries selling the most bonds on the basis of population. Ten awards will be made with the state divided into three sections. The project was announced by Alfred Decker King, state librarian, of Harrisburg.

Times Topics

CHIEF GIVES WARNING
Fire Chief Charles Albaugh issues the annual warning relative to the decorations used in churches, clubs and halls as well as stores. Many have already made inquiry of the Chief relative to the decorations. Many of them are found to be fire resistant but are not absolutely fireproof and are considered a hazard.

JUST A REMINDER
Householders who do not have their sidewalks cleaned are reminded that under the postal regulations the mail carriers do not have to trudge through heavy snow and that if walks are too deep with snow delivery of mail may be withheld until the snow and ice is removed. Anything that constitutes a hazard to the mail delivery men may cause the withholding of delivery.

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT

The regular meeting of the Town Council will be held this evening and at this time action will be taken relative to the vacation and sick leave periods of all city employees. Heretofore vacations have been taken but they had never been legally authorized by the Council. Under the ruling expected to be made this evening employees in all departments of the city after six months' service will be entitled to a one week's vacation with pay. Those who have served one year or more will be given a two weeks vacation with pay and 10 days sick leave. Other routine business will mark the final meeting of the year. The regular meeting of the school board will also be held this evening. The death of R. W. Mackay creates a vacancy in the Board membership and also in the treasurer'ship of the board. Whether any action in this matter will be taken this evening is not as yet known.

OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Marine Corps Paper Lauds Exploits of Sheffield Flier

The following communication from the Marine Corps air depot at Miramar, Calif., will be read with interest by many friends of the young officer mentioned:

Jap shells exploded all around him while he was circling above a downed fellow pilot to guide a destroyer to the spot, reports Marine First Lieutenant Archie F. Brown, 27, of 215 Pickering street, Sheffield, on his return from the Central Pacific, but he stayed long enough to see the pilot rescued.

His wife, the former Dorothy M. Wagner, of State College, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie S. Brown, live at the same Sheffield address.

Lt. Brown, a dive bomber pilot who participated in 47 bombing and strafing raids, told of the bomber's flaming plunge into the sea.

"That is a sight I will never forget—seeing that bomber go down in flames," the Marine airman said. "The shore batteries opened fire on the pilot in the water and on my plane circling above him. But the destroyer rescued him without mishap."

On another raid over Mill last July, a Jap shell exploded in his left main gasoline tank, but luckily did not set the plane on fire. It tore a large hole in the tank, however, and Lt. Brown said he "headed straight for home".

Youngsville Boy In Pilot Training

Flight Officer David E. Hedstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Hedstrom, of Youngsville, has arrived at Rosecrans Field, a base of the ferrying division of the Air Transport Command, near St. Joseph, Mo., for an advanced pilot training course.

A graduate of Youngsville High School, F/O Hedstrom was a machinist at Irvine prior to his enlistment in the Air Corps in 1942. He received his wings at Blytheville, Ark., in August of this year. His wife, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taft, and their child live at 608 Prospect street. A brother, Joseph H. Hedstrom, was killed while serving with the armed forces in France and three other brothers are all in service. They are: Alvin, in Italy; Paul, in France, and Philip, in Colorado.

though he lost most of his fuel, he reached his base safely.

Operating from Majuro in the Marshalls, Lt. Brown logged 600 hours of combat flying. In addition to dive bombing strikes on the Jap-held Marshall Islands of Wotje, Mili, Jaluit and Makelap, he took part in numerous patrol and reconnaissance hops.

Lt. Brown was graduated from Sheffield High School in 1935, and from Pennsylvania State College in 1939. Entering Marine aviation in May, 1942, he won his wings and was commissioned as 2nd Lt. Robert A. Honhart, 523 North Center street.

ASSOCIATED PRESS CASUALTY REPORTS
Wounded in action and previously reported to next of kin:

Akeley—Sgt. Lester C. Arthur Tidoute—Cpl. Glenn F. Barton. Tionesta—Pfc. James H. Elbert. Corry—Pfc. Merle R. Amy, 265 West Washington street; S/Sgt. Robert A. Honhart, 523 North Center street.

DuBois—Pfc. John A. Hambrosky, 101 Robinson street; S/Sgt. John R. Thompson, 412 Spring avenue. Clearfield—Sgt. Ralph O. Smeal, 320 West Fifth avenue.

WOUNDED IN ACTION

Pvt. Walter Lewis, Spring Creek man has been wounded in action in France, on November 16th, according to word received by Mrs. Lewis, who resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Clark, of Spring Creek. Pfc. Lewis entered service on March 13th, 1944 and went overseas in August. Prior to receiving the notification from the War Department Mrs. Lewis had received a letter from her husband saying he had been wounded and was being cared for in an army base hospital in France. Pfc. Douglas Bogart, of Columbus, was also reported as having been wounded but he was with the American Army fighting in Germany.

BROTHERS MEET

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Smith, of Starbrick, have had word from their sons, Ensign Allen M. Smith, with the navy air forces, and T/Sgt. Charles H. Jr., with the army air forces, that they recently met somewhere in the Marianas. First time they had seen each other in about five and one-half years.

ON SICK LEAVE

S/Sgt. David H. Deardorff, under care at England General Hospital in Atlantic City, is expected home over the weekend for two weeks sick leave with his family. Mr. and Mrs. Merle H. Deardorff, Jackson avenue.

IS AT DESHON

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Johnson, 296 Connecticut avenue, have learned that their son, Cpl. Warren N. Johnson, is a patient in Ward 24, Deshon Army Hospital at Butler.

Pvt. Robert C. Weldert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Weldert, 395 Beech street, has returned to Fletcher General Hospital at Cambridge, O., after two weeks sick leave spent with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ruth Carbaugh, Jefferson street, has had a telegram from her son, Warrant Officer Royce A. Carbaugh, that he has arrived safely at an undisclosed destination somewhere overseas. His wife, Audrey, whose home is in New Rochelle, N. Y., is here to visit his mother and his sister, Mrs. William Smith, Russell street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bradley, 22 Cornwango avenue, have had word that their daughter, Pvt. Genevieve F. Bradley, stationed at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., is attending eight weeks motor transport specialist's school.

Mrs. Celia Engle has received word from her two daughters that they had the good fortune of a meeting somewhere across the ocean. Both girls are second lieutenants. Bertha E., having been in England since March and Margaret E., arriving there in October.

Mrs. Jane Fellows, of Russell, has received word from her husband, Marine Private Willard E. Fellows, that he has arrived safely somewhere in the South Pacific. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Fellows.

The wife and parents of S/Sgt. Ronald Wood, of Youngsville, have received word of his safe arrival in England. He entered service April 29, 1943, and received his basic training at Camp Shelby, Miss. was later transferred to Camp Bowie, Texas, where he had his advanced training and was assigned to a combat engineers

The High Cost of Not Saving Money

Even though prices have advanced a bit, most of us can plan our spending and meet the costs of the things we really need from money we now are earning.

But "the high cost of NOT saving money" can't be met that way. It gives you money for planned saving. And planned spending plus planned saving will mean success for you in money management.

Our Government is asking you to plan your spending and your saving as a vital contribution to the War Effort... as a necessary step to hold down prices. From a purely personal angle, it will pay you to do these things. Take a pencil and work out your own plan. Determine how much you will save. Determine how much you will spend now, and in the future. Then you will know how many of your saved dollars you can invest in War Bonds and in building up your bank account. Then you'll be helping to build a sound America, to maintain the buying power of your dollars and to assure a sound financial future for your family.

PLAN YOUR SPENDING FOR YOUR COUNTRY - YOURSELF PLAN YOUR SAVING

Help the nation's efforts to keep your living costs DOWN, the buying power of your dollar UP

Facts About War Workers And Unemployment Benefits

Washington, Dec. 4.—(AP)—What does Rosie the Riveter do when her war job ends? Take a poorer-paying one immediately when it's offered to her? or hold off for one paying as well as her war job? And—if she does that, can she draw unemployment compensation?

That problem—and the solution—will affect workers in every state when job-changing starts after the war.

Under the social security law every state has an unemployment compensation fund. It's built up by taxes on employers in commerce and industry and, in a few states, by taxes on employees, too.

Not a workers are converted. But a tremendous number are. When thrown out of employment the "covered" workers can ask for unemployment compensation.

It is intended to make sure that while a worker is out of a job through no fault of his own, and doing without wages and salary, he will have something to live on.

He applies at the local unemployment compensation office. In every case it is state-operated. The officials there decide whether an applicant is entitled to the compensation.

But a basic requirement for receiving unemployment benefits is that the applicant should be ready, able and willing to take suitable work offered him.

Being ready means being available for work. "Available" and "suitable" are key words. Very often they have to be interpreted different to fit different cases.

Thus decisions on unemployment through the state courts.

ment pay for a worker who refuses a job offer—will vary from state to state. Here's an example of the problem, taken out of thin air but typical of what will happen:

Rosie the Riveter worked in a dime store before the war, getting $15 weekly. She had no skill. The war came. She learned to be a riveter and got $60 a week.

Now the war ends. Her plant shuts down. She goes to the local unemployment. Compensation Office. She says she wants another job and, meanwhile, she wants her weekly benefits.

"The local office tells her: There's no riveting job open. And, since her only skill is riveting, there's no job open for her at $60 weekly. She's told she can get an unskilled, saleswoman's job at $25.

She refuses. She says that kind of work is not now suitable for her. She says she wants to look around for a job—either similar in work or pay—to her riveting job. And while she looks, she says, she thinks she's entitled to unemployment pay. What does the local office do? Refuse to let her have it? Maybe. Or give it to her? Maybe.

The office might refuse on these grounds: She's not entitled to the pay because she was not "available" for work since she turned down the job offer which the office considered "suitable" for her.

When an applicant is turned down on his request for benefits, he can apply to a higher authority in the state's unemployment compensation system and even up through the state courts.

Warren County to Have Part In Coming R. E. A. Projects

One of the most important post-war developments in Western Pennsylvania is now being planned by the Rural Electrification Administration and the end of the war will see over 1,400 miles of rural lines built. The development will bring light and power to 15,000 families in this end of the state and create huge markets for electrical appliances.

Warren county will have a big part in the work and the Warren Electric Cooperative has planned the building of 131 miles of lines at a cost which is figured at approximately $181,000. The Warren county development will be in line with others in this end of the state. Western Pennsylvania's co-ops are getting a head start in war farm electrification by mapping detailed plans for lines and consumer equipment and by preparing equipment orders for manufacturers. Farm co-operative groups in Western Pennsylvania will spend more than half a million of dollars for transmission and distribution lines, poles, transformers and other equipment.

Once built these lines will mean tremendous sales of household appliances and fixtures for the interior of farm homes and of electrically operated dairy, livestock and poultry equipment for the exterior. In this connection it is interesting to note that already in Warren firms are getting ready to have a big share in this new potential market. The Darling Jewelry Company is preparing to install a complete line of electrical appliances and Homer Fitch has secured a lease on a storeroom ready to open a store with a complete line of electrical supplies, once the war ends. Electrical stores already in operation together with Montgomery Ward are also planning to intensify their drive for the sales of refrigerators, ranges, etc.

Nationally, the REA expects that farm families on the lines of the 810 co-operatives will buy 600,000 electric irons, 555,000 radios, 425,000 refrigerators, 285,000 vacuum cleaners, 390,000 toasters, 210,000 electric heaters, 315,000 electric clocks, 115,000 coffee makers and 530,000 electric lamps—not to mention 25 million light bulbs.

In addition they will buy such things as 80,000 chicken brooders, 150,000 poultry lighters, 45,000 electric fences, 150,000 ice cream freezers and 100,000 pig brooders. No estimate has been made as to the number of quick freezing units that will be demanded.

Not only in this county will there be great expansion of the rural lines but the Central Electric Co-operative with headquarters at Parkers Landing plans 35 miles of lines in Armstrong county with an expenditure of $35,000; 82 miles will be built in Somerset county; another 128 miles will be built in Clearfield county. Other projects are planned in Huntingdon, Indiana, Jefferson and Bedford counties.

The result will be the arrival of labor-saving electric power on farms and areas that have had to rely on fuel oil for heating, cooking and lighting; storage batteries for radios and windmills and gasoline for the farm power. Untouched and potentially great markets will be opened for producers and merchants in practically every line of electrical equipment.

The REA has funds on hand for immediate purchase of 250 new substations, 2,795,000 poles, more than two billion feet of wire, 230,000 transformers and four million insulators and funds to build 6,000 miles of transmission lines and 170,000 miles of distribution lines.

Farmers have been waiting patiently for electricity to come to them and the REA co-ops are proving the quickest means.

The REA lends to the co-ops the entire cost of building rural electric distribution systems, including cost of generating and transmission equipment. In addition REA finances the wiring of farm homes and installation of electric and plumbing applications. Such loans may cover a complete pressure system for homes and farm buildings.

For post-war projects the REA acting as agent for the co-ops' channels requirements for materials and facilities to manufacturers and government surplus property agencies.

Girls' League Opens at YW December 13

With the community's eyes centered on the re-entrance of basketball into Warren for another season, special interest is due the newly-organized YWCA Girls' Basketball League. The female sex has, more or less, taken a back seat for some twenty years in their participation in this sport. Now, cage fans will have the chance to see what the girls can do in the way of re-inaugurating the game.

At a meeting held in the YW Thurs. night, representatives from the 8 teams were present to discuss the opening, along with other business matters. Of the eight teams represented, seven are definitely included in the present set-up. National Forge, Struthers Wells, Thomas Coupling, Sylvania plant No. 1, Sylvania plant No. 2, Cozy Corner, and the New Process are all set to get into actual game conditions. An eighth contender, the High School team, has not, as yet, found a sponsor. If the girls are able to obtain a backer, this team will enter the competition.

Oneta Sheffer, league proxy, got matters under way and it was decided to play the first game on December 13 at the YW. In the initial tilt, the Cozy Corner girls will meet the Sylvania No. 1 at 7:30 p. m., and in the second battle, Thomas Coupling will take on Struthers Wells. The second night of the campaign will see the National Forge representatives vying with the Sylvania No. 2 girls on December 15, also on the YW court. If a sponsor can be obtained for the High School team, the New Process will meet the high schoolers in the second tilt that evening.

It was estimated that between 150 and 200 spectators can be accommodated at the games. A small price of admission will be asked to cover league expenses. So, come on out, all you loyal fans, and back this newly-formed league with everything you have.

Slow Down in Traffic Is Seen On the Pennsy

Corry railroaders, according to the Journal, are manifesting some anxiety over the development of a slow down in traffic on the Erie and Renovo division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, passing through this city. With the closing of the lake ore carrying season a general reduction develops at this time of year but it appears now to be developing more extensively than for several years.

It is understood that the last ore car coming down the lakes is now being unloaded at Erie or will dock there in a day or two, and that the heavy ore haul for this season has ended. Several crews have been reported laid off and a number of locomotives have been released to other divisions. Railroad men here expect that the reduction may mean the furloughing of many of the crewmen who have been taken into railway employment since 1940. They say the cutdown is more severe because the congestion on the main lines of the Pennsy which caused a large amount of freight to be diverted over the local road, has been cleared up and this volume of traffic will not slow up on the Renovo and Erie division this winter as in other wartime years.

The Corry railroaders indicate they expect to see freight traffic on the line cut back to one through train and one local, each way, daily. Whether or not the reduction becomes that extensive remains to develop.

BEFORE WE CAN MEET THE FULL DEMAND

There are no two ways about it: Before we can meet the full demand for home telephone service (there's a waiting list of more than 90,000 in this State alone) Germany must be licked . . . and Japan.

Then the producers of peacetime telephone equipment, who have been working day and night for the past three years for General Eisenhower and General MacArthur and Admiral Nimitz and GI Joe, will be given the go-ahead on civilian production.

And after we begin to get the central office equipment we need—the switchboards, the cable, the instruments, the 101 other items that make telephone service click—there's the tremendous job of installation . . . of laying miles of wire under city streets and along country roads . . . of splicing cables . . . of hooking everything into the living mechanism that is telephone service.

Make no mistake about this: No one will stay on the waiting list for any reason but the needs of war. We don't like to keep anyone waiting for telephone service.

Women May Be In the Army When Peace Is Declared

This is the time when our brave fighting men need more help—the help that every woman in this area can give them by joining the Women's Army Corps at once. Now every Army job is vital as never before. In the grueling struggle toward the victory which we know will be ours, every Army officer and every "G.I." is a necessary cog in our great wheel of fortune.

But these men and women already carrying our fighting burden need help—help of all sorts. Help in the form of war bonds, purchases, blood donations, increased production—and help in the form of a larger WAC component of the Army. Every Wac taking over a military job relieves that much of the burden now shouldered by our fighting heroes. Here is the women's chance to do an important job in the winning of this war—to back up our embattled men when they need help most, and to be in the Army when it wins.

Colonel Oveta Culp Hobby, National WAC Director, says: "The stronger our Army at this crucial stage of the war, the sooner they come the day of peace. And every woman who joins the WAC adds new strength to the Army."

"The call is urgent. Hundreds of thousands of women are needed in the WAC at once. This is a challenge which American women should feel proud to answer now." Women who join the WAC at this time may, upon taking the oath of service, request that they be not called for active duty until after the first of next year. They may also designate which branch of the service they desire to enter—the Army Air Forces, the Ground Forces, or the Service Forces. The WAC offers a variety of 239 jobs to women who enlist, including special opportunities to serve as technicians under the supervision of the doctors in the Medical Department.

On Tuesday, Lt. Esther Potts, Sgt. Claude A. Van Andel and Cpl. Zella M. Kutchal of the Erie WAC Recruiting Office, will maintain offices from 2 until 9 p. m. in the Y.W.C.A. in Warren. They can answer further inquiries you may have concerning the WAC. A call to their office will arrange an appointment at your home to suit your convenience.

Prison terms are longer in the United States than for corresponding crimes in England.

Weatherman Promises Rain After Sub-Zero of Weekend

Vagaries of the weatherman are almost past all understanding as after a spell of weather that has lured ears, frosted noses and caused the old chills to itch and burn the promise rain. Honest he says that tomorrow evening snow will be falling over this section and it will be much warmer. Now of course it may be that he is going to let loose a drizzle that will freeze on the roads and give us a sleet storm that will snap wires, break down trees and shrubs etc. Perish the thought—but it could be!

Sunday morning up on Morrison Run where the registering thermometer of the Beaty lease run by Art Blowers the mercury sank down to 10 below which was just about the coldest registered in this neck of woods. Today when Art got on his fur cap and mittens he took a peek and the mercury had don a dive down to 12 degrees below. Art is certainly in the ice box of Western Pennsylvania as nothing in this section can compare with the cold that hovers over his bailiwick.

The weatherman promises rising temperature today and not so cold tonight with Tuesday cloudy and much warmer with light rain beginning in the western portion by Tuesday evening.

The snow and cold over the weekend seemed to be just what the doctor ordered for Christmas shopping and Saturday the streets were crowded with shoppers and the stores enjoyed a brisk business. Seemingly there has been a large amount of early shopping done and many feel that the early buying for the gifts to service men has caused many to get large amounts of their Christmas needs attended to. However the stores have announced that they will be open evenings beginning December 15th.

School Students Hope to Break All Records In Buying Bonds and Stamps

Tomorrow, December 5, is the last day for students and teachers of the Warren school district to receive credit for stamps and bonds in the current Sixth War Loan drive and every effort is being made to surpass all previous records attained by these groups.

In asking for all-out support by the various buildings, the superintendent, John G. Rescan, said it is highly important that each one of us stand back of those fine men and women representing us on the fighting front. Let us give them every assurance of our support by lending to the government our funds to the extent possible. They are sacrificing. So can we.

Sales listings in the week of November 27 totaled $4,147.38, with an additional $159.73 in school savings accounts. The high school with no school savings account for $430.95 of this amount. Other buildings, with savings, sales and totals, in that order, were as follows:

Johnson—$578.55 — $916.05 — $1,494.60; 267 — $5.60.
Lacy — $935.61 — $1,877.80 — $2,813.41; 227 — $12.39.
McClintock — $138.15 — $437.40 — $575.55; 136 — $4.23.
Seneca — $101.65 — $338.23 — $439.88; 42 — $10.93.
South — $644.55 — $593.85 — $1,238.40; 213 — $5.81.
Totals — $6,864.26 — $10,258.78 — $17,123.04; 2,724 — $6.29.

To Organize East Street School PTA Wednesday Night

Invitations have been mailed to all fathers and mothers of East street school children to meet at the school at 8 p. m. Wednesday for the purpose of organizing a PTA group and all parents are cordially invited to be on hand.

"The Value of a PTA to Children, Teachers and Parents" will be the subject of a group of short talks by Mrs. Walter Mathyer, Community PTA Council president, and the following representatives of local units: Mrs. R. E. Sires, "PTA Literature"; Mrs. S. E. Saylor, "Benefits"; Mrs. F. H. Hetrick, "Goals"; Mrs. William Rohrer, "Founders Day"; Mrs. Guy McCloskey, "The Council"; Mrs. Francis Kotmair, "Officers and Chairmen"; Mrs. H. G. Stohl, "Ways in Which a PTA Can Help the School." In addition, it is expected that Mrs. R. E. Rubner, president of the Northwest District Council, will be here from Erie to speak briefly.

The invitation to form a PTA for all grades at East Street came after the organization of a first and second grade mothers' club this fall. Many parents with children in the upper grades were anxious to become a part of a parent-teacher group and felt the mothers' club should include all grades.

Then the PTA organization of Warren, eager to include East Street school in its membership, asked for permission to present the advantages of its organization through its head, Mrs. Mathyer.

Miss Jane Holt, principal, and her staff of teachers, have been very cooperative in this project and have expressed themselves as happy with the opportunity of becoming acquainted with the parents of their "children."

ODT Drafts Suggestions For Keeping Cars Fit in Winter

The need for cleaning and checking over the working parts of passenger car engines in anticipation of winter weather was stressed today in a seven-point program drafted by the maintenance section of the Office of Defense Transportation announced by Earl J. Donor, district manager at Erie.

Most of the readjustments and maintenance suggestions made by the ODT are simple jobs which the average motorist can do for himself or with the assistance of the attendant at the corner gasoline station.

In its recommendations, Mr. Donor said that engine knocking, caused by changes in the gasoline being used, can be corrected by readjustment of the spark timing. Starting troubles, however, are caused almost entirely by the condition of the engine and engine accessories. Winter grade gasoline may require a little longer warm-up time for the engine before smooth operation is obtained, but the ODT states this can be helped by covering the radiator and by longer use of the choke.

Although off-the-shelf deliveries of storage batteries may be found difficult, just as many batteries are scheduled for manufacture this year as were made last year, Mr. Donor said. Motorists can save themselves trouble and expense by having their battery checked now and given a booster charge, if necessary, before freezing weather. A fully charged battery at the beginning of the cold season will give better and longer service. By winterizing his engine and using the recommended starting procedure, any motorist can save and prolong the life of his battery.

Winterizing steps recommended for passenger cars in short mileage use are:

Drain engine oil and refill with grade S.A.E. 10 W. oil.

Clean and adjust spark plugs to ".025" GAP. (a few 1941 cars called for a greater gap).

Clean all dirt and grease from the ignition distributor cap, the spark coil, the spark plug wires and the spark plug porcelain.

Check carburetor for choke mechanism, either hand or automatic type, to see that choke operates freely and correctly.

Cover up the bottom of the radiator enough to keep the engine temperature at 150 degrees for alcohol anti-freeze and 170 degrees for permanent type anti-freeze.

Put anti-freeze in engine cooling system as soon as weather is consistently below 40 degrees F.

Have storage battery tested every two weeks. Whenever the acid specific gravity is below 1.200, the battery should be recharged. To start a cold engine, the ODT recommends the following procedure:

Open the throttle about one-quarter way with the hand throttle and leave in this position until engine is started.

Push the accelerator pedal to the floor two or three times. This action will reset the automatic choke and fast idle, when carburetors have these features. In addition, this "pumping" of the accelerator pedal will "prime" the manifold with some gasoline from the carburetor.

Push the clutch pedal to the floor and hold it there.

Pull out the choke full distance. (This is done automatically on cars with automatic choke.)

Turn on ignition key and step on starter. Push choke bottom in slightly after engine has turned over once or twice.

After engine is running, release the clutch pedal and permit the engine to warm up for three to five minutes without racing it. As the engine warms up, push in the choke bottom racing to produce smooth running of the engine.

There are other adjustments which effect starting and when starting is difficult, a check should be made for misadjustment of distributor breaker points, cracks in distributor cap, loose wires, and broken or damaged insulation on spark plug wires.

More motorists may have to use alcohol type anti-freezes this year since the supply of permanent type has been reduced by the demands for munitions. Alcohol type anti-freezes give satisfactory protection, but need more frequent checking on freezing point. Most gasoline stations are equipped to check the freezing point of radiator solutions.

Returned Veteran's Rights On Old Job Are Explained

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Dec. 4.—(P)—A returned veteran's seniority rights in his old job create recurring problems which will be multiplied at war's end. Here are some problems and answers.

The answers are from officials of the Selective Service (SS) system. They interpret the SS act which covers veterans' job rights.

The law says a veteran is entitled to his old job back "or to a position of like seniority, status and pay."

He is entitled to his old job back even if it means firing someone with greater seniority.

SS has laid down a flat rule on seniority. It says:

"Seniority rights accumulate during the period of active military service. Time is credited in the same manner as it would have accumulated had the person remained continuously employed at work in his civilian occupation."

So—Jones worked one year at a job, b it up one year's seniority, then served two years in the army came back, instead of only one year's seniority he now had three.

SS says seniority carries benefits but does not entitle a veteran to be upgraded to a position he can't fill.

This is directly contrary to a recent interpretation released by the War Labor Board (WLB).

The WLB said it understood, veteran would have to be "reemployed at the level to which he would have been entitled if he had had no break in his service with a company."

But this was simply an expression of WLB opinion in answer to an inquiry from one individual. It should have asked SS.

For practical purposes—in dealings between an employer and returned veteran—the WLB interpretation can be disregarded.

The SS interpretations do not have the effect of law. They are subject to court review. They are, however, guideposts in explaining the intentions of congress in passing the SS act.

(A PERSONAL MESSAGE TO EVERY AMERICAN IN WARREN COUNTY)

DO WE REMEMBER PEARL HARBOR

Pearl Harbor happened here!

That morning of December 7th, 1941, those grinning yellow devils didn't just blast our Navy . . .

Like bloody, greedy gangsters, they came right into Warren County! They came here and they stole our extra pair of pants. They stole our silk and nylon stockings. They stole the tires off our cars. They stole our gasoline. Our rubber boots. Our butter and sugar and beef. They stole the fuel we need to keep our houses warm. They stole many of our doctors and dentists, our school teachers, firemen, policemen. They stole—and are still stealing every payday—a big chunk out of every paycheck every one in Warren County earns. AND THEY ROBBED US OF NEARLY FIVE THOUSAND OF THE FINEST BOYS AND GIRLS IN WARREN COUNTY—some of whom we'll never see again.

Yes, Pearl Harbor happened HERE! The Japs and Germans both invaded Warren County that December 7th—looted us to a standstill—and it made us good and mad. Boiling mad!

But that was three years ago come Thursday. And in these three years some of us have felt our anger cool. In just three years, are we getting used to doing without the things we once enjoyed? Are we getting used to "shortages" of rubber and gasoline and food and clothes? Are we getting used to inconveniences—and even getting used to the absence of our boys and girls away at war? Are we going to lie down NOW and admit that Hitler and Hirohito were right after all, when they figured Americans were too "soft" to pay the price of Victory?

But maybe you think these are unfair questions.

Then answer this: WHY have we been slipping, here in Warren County? WHY have our scrap drives, our blood bank, our war fund, faced such uphill sledding lately? WHY—unless it is because the Japs and Nazis have robbed us and made us like it—did we FAIL to buy our share of "E" bonds in the last war loan?

Let's do some deep-down thinking between now and Thursday—the 3rd anniversary of Pearl Harbor—the Pearl Harbor that happened here. Let's face the fact that it's up to US to win this war—that every day we "take it easy" is another day in which more of our boys will die—that there are certain definite things each one of us must do and keep on doing until Victory is complete.

You know what these things are. You know that one of them, the most important of all right now, is to buy all the War Bonds you can possibly buy during the Sixth War Loan. If you haven't bought your extra Bonds, do so now. If no one calls on you, go yourself to the bank or post office and get that extra Bond. And make it the biggest War Bond you've ever bought.

That's how YOU and all of us here in Warren County can show the gangster killers in Germany and Japan that WE DO REMEMBER PEARL HARBOR—THAT WE ARE NOT FORGETTING!

P. S. to War Bond Workers

It takes a lot of WORK to win this war. Ask the boys in the Normandy invasion—the lads who landed on Salpan and Leyte, if that wasn't WORK. Hard, punishing, heart-breaking WORK, they'll tell you—and they did quit when they got tired—didn't let up until their objectives had been WON.

How many hours have YOU personally put into your WORK selling Bonds in this Sixth War Loan? How many MORE hours are you willing to put in to get this all-important job done RIGHT? Many of you have done a superb job already—and the results are there to show for it. But the battle is so far from being won that only a supreme effort will bring us out on top!

General Eisenhower—and every G. I. in uniform!—appeals to you for help. So let's pitch in NOW and do OUR part to bring this war to VICTORY. Go back to every purchaser and prospect in your territory. If they've bought Bonds already, see if they won't buy MORE. If they've not bought Bonds this time, try to find a way they CAN buy, from savings or budget or temporary increase in payroll allotments.

Do anything and everything you CAN do to see more people and sell more Bonds. Keep TRYING!—and keep remembering that the Warren County boys in Germany and the Pacific can't do their job until and unless you have done yours.

LET'S MAKE THURSDAY A PEARL HARBOR DAY OUR ENEMIES WILL REMEMBER TO THE DAY THEY DIE!

Scalise Racks Up 22 Points To Pace Massamen in Initial Game of 1944-45 Cage Card

Opening their 1944-45 basketball season before a packed house, Joe Massa's Warren Dragons romped to an easy 56-25 win over the underdog Youngsville Eagles Friday night at the Beaty gym. Joe Scalise, stellar forward, paced the local crew with 22 points, followed up by Al Babcock, junior man playing his first year on the high school team, who added ten points to the Dragon tally sheet.

Racing forward with a brilliant display of shooting, passing, and defensive tactics, the Dragon crew, starting their first season under the tutelage of Joseph A. Massa, held complete control of the game, not once letting up on their power. The Eagles, also playing their first year under their new coach, Bob Jewell, showed fine ability throughout the battle, but the local quintet strode forth with too much power for the smaller Youngsville five. At the whistle ending the first quarter, the Warren squad held a 20-7 margin, 10 of the marks being accounted for by Joseph Scalise, the sparkplug of the local team. Coach Massa substituted frequently throughout the entire game, trying to determine the most potent first five to step into the coming battles.

The Dragons opened up the game with a beautiful tip-off play, although the try for the basket failed. The Massamen initiated the new season with a powerful man-for-man defense which continued through the local high school five showed a number of weaknesses; they played wonderful offensive and defensive ball. Several of the players appeared a little green, as all first nights appear, but with a few games under their belt, the Dragon quintet should be one of the most powerful aggregations in the section. Junior Joe Scalise, in his second year as a varsity star, displayed his record as the deadliest one-hand shot ever to be seen on the high school court by dropping in five two-pointers in the beginning stanza. Scalise's ability to outsmart his man and his remarkable knowledge of the cage sport.

Massa opened the second stanza with a new five who set a zone defense, the first time in the past twelve years that Warren followed a set defense. The Dragons team manipulating the powerful defense, Massa is a student of Penn State's John Lohar, a pioneer in the organization of the famed zone defense. The Warren team has been outsmarting with the zone and will probably use it extensively throughout the season. Massa was taught the zone by Lohar and has been experimenting with it since the opening drills.

Although Ace Scalise copped the spotlight Friday night, another youthful boy, Al Babcock, looked like a definite prospect for one of the starting berths. Babcock, a junior, is playing his first year on the high school squad. He won considerable attention in the Y. M. C. A. league last winter.

Bob Jewell's Youngsville crew was paced by Phil Carr, star forward on the Eagle quintet. Carr collected two shots in the second period and 3 in the fourth adding three foul shots to his total. Out of 25 attempts at the hoop, the Eagle boys hit only nine times, compared with the Dragons' 16 attempts, making good 27 of those tries. In the free throw activity, the Dragons accounted for two successful throws out of seven tries. For the opposing crew, they attempted 14 free chances and made 7.

Playing their opening battle before some eight hundred fans, the youthful cagers displayed some fine points along with their weaknesses. The two quintets appeared in good shape, although the Eagle crew was at a disadvantage playing on a much larger court than their own. The coaches, both Warren High stars at one time, were well satisfied with the Friday night action. The local mentor stated that some of the boys appeared quite inexperienced, but with a little more practice and some tough competition they should form a wonderful ball club.

The Warren crew will go through rigid drills this afternoon in preparation for their battle with St. Marys on the Beaty court tomorrow night. St. Marys has one returning letterman on its crew, the remaining boys being green and inexperienced.

Years Ago In Local Sports

In 1924 Although the Warren Tigers won only four games and tied one out of the ten scheduled tilts, their record is exceedingly enviable. The Tigers put up good battles against all their opponents and gave the fans some fine football.

Jack Sharkey has been banned from New York State's boxing rings as a result of the referee in a recent match when the official refused to observe Sharkey's claim of a foul.

Knute Rockne, famous football coach at Notre Dame, was expected to arrive at Cleveland to put the western representatives through their drills for the East-West game. The eastern team will work under C. W. Spears, of West Virginia, and Jack Cuthland, Pittsburgh.

Ben Newman, the Willie Hoppe of England, is a recent match with Alex Smith, ran a string of 669 buttons without giving Smith one shot at the balls. Smith remained as a spectator throughout the majority of the match.

In 1934 The National Transit and Independents' basketball teams opened the year's YMCA cage loop, both taking victories. The Transit took a 20-20 decision from the Merchants, Joe Massa and Harry Lord each collecting 8 points apiece to lead the Transit boys. The Independents romped over the Hy-Vee Oils by a 30-12 count. Chido added ten points to the Independents' score sheet.

The Warren High cagers hit their first action of the season when they tangled with the Edinboro five at the High School court. This game will probably turn out to be just a warm-up tilt for Heinie Kolpien's boys.

26 members of the New York Giants' pro football team will receive shares from the players' pool. Five members of the Minnesota Gophers' grid team may have played their last college game, if officials rule that a year of college competition is required for the annual Sugar Bowl classic on New Year's Day.

In early Colonial days it was common to prepare coffee by spicing it with an addition of cinnamon.

There is no doubt Navy suffered when Bob Jenkins, hard-hitting fullback, was injured on the third play of the game, and Don Whitmire, All America tackle, candidate, limped off the field late in the second quarter. But even if both Middle aces had seen full time service, it is doubtful there would have been any material difference in the final score.

Jenkins got back into action in the fourth period in time to have a pass intercepted by Glenn Davis, one of the five Navy aerials pulled in by the future generals as they ran their total pass interceptions for the season to 35. Davis grabbed the ball on his 32 and from there Army marched for the touchdown that took the game out of the danger class.

One of the other Army interceptions, this one by Herschel Fuson, center, set the stage for the Army's first touchdown scored by Dale Hall, from 24 yards out. Davis and Felix Blanchard, a pile-driving back all day, teamed for the second score with the latter going over from the nine yard line and Davis went 50 yards for the third on a lateral.

With the Army probe team providing all the touchdowns no doubt was left that Army would be well supplied with material for several years to come. Experts rated the Army as a team that could hold its own with an yof the collegiate pre-war outfits. An eleven that was dangerous any spot on the field, had the drilled "Y" working to perfection with outstanding operation in every position and a wealth of reserves.

Dragon J-V Squad Trims Eagle Seconds

Also officially opening their new season on the hardwoods, Warren High's Second team copped a 38-12 decision from the Eagles Second team preceding the varsity game on the Beaty court. Al Babcock, who also played in the main game, led the second stringers to their initial victory by dropping five through the hoops and adding a total of 11 points. Tony Vesio was close behind with 7 markers. For the Youngsville crew Woodard was high.

The local five looked very green and inexperienced as they tangled with their neighbors, but they took immediate control of the boards as well as the ball and succeeded in holding the Eagles to only 3 field goals.

Dragon J-V Squad Trims Eagle Seconds

Also officially opening their new season on the hardwoods, Warren High's Second team copped a 38-12 decision from the Eagles Second team preceding the varsity game on the Beaty court. Al Babcock, who also played in the main game, led the second stringers to their initial victory by dropping five through the hoops and adding a total of 11 points. Tony Vesio was close behind with 7 markers. For the Youngsville crew Woodard was high.

The local five looked very green and inexperienced as they tangled with their neighbors, but they took immediate control of the boards as well as the ball and succeeded in holding the Eagles to only 3 field goals.

BEHIND THE LINES

Warren's scholastic cagers starting off with a bid to another successful season deserves a nod for coach Joe Massa, a lifetime resident of this town and continually among the outstanding sportsmen of the community. While in high school here, Massa played football, baseball and basketball, and in college starred in all of those sports, with the exception of football. Joe received a fractured knee and was forced to abandon the grid game as far as actual play was concerned. Graduating from Edinboro, he went to Kinzua and onto Sheffield where his successes were evident. Coming Warren as a science instructor, a assistant football and basketball coach, he worked himself up to the position he now holds, that of a cager mentor. Massa is continuing the school's policy of good athletics. He is a firm believer in the fact that ball games should be played for fun and physical training one gets out of playing, is decidedly against the so-called (Turn to Page Ten).

TAKES POSITION

Alick Clark, who for some time has been general manager of the Great Eastern Lamp Manufacturing Company, Ltd., of Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada, is being employed by Sunray Electric, Inc., to take charge of the production of fluorescent lamps. Mr. Clark will work directly with Wayne Fitzgerald, who is general manager of Sunray Electric, Inc., in an attempt to substantially increase the output of fluorescent lamps which are so urgently required by essential industries throughout the country.

REALIZE THE NEED

At the convention of Waterways boosters held in St. Louis last week there were strong resolutions passed urging the building as soon as possible of the Allegheny river dam at Kinzua. The dam is urged as a flood control measure and also a means for the keeping the waterways of the river free from pollution. The project has been authorized and the appropriation will doubtless be made in an omnibus appropriation bill for waterways. The dam will cost in the neighborhood of $37,000,000 and the larger amount of that sum will be expended for labor and in transferring rail and road lines in the section near the site.

WILL MOVE GRAIN

Railroad men on the local division of the Pennsylvania are looking forward to the movement of grain to the eastern seaboard during the weeks to come. While the season on the Great Lakes has closed, scores of ships are being loaded with grain at Thunder Bay and other ports on the upper lake in an effort to make the last run of the year before penalty insurance is imposed in the face of storms. Last year many boats made Erie harbor and tied up and have gone home dissatisfied. Most were unloading during the winter and the grain was handled by the railroad after the shipments of iron ore had ceased. Much of the grain will be exported to European countries to relieve the hungry people.

BEHIND THE LINES

"blood" games. May his luck continue . . . Saturday a m's Pittsburgh Post carried a very interesting article on the opening of the Westminster College cage season against Slippery Rock on Tuesday night. If you cage fans can spare a few moments to take a look back at the cage world a few years ago you will remember a guy named Nelson—Dean Nelson to be exact. A big, blonde court enthusiast who packed a heck of a wallop on the court. Dean was one of the top scorers, as well as an excellent board man. After injuring his knee in the Warren-Bradford game, Nelson was forced to give the game up for a while, but later came back to it. Now he is one of the top contenders for the lone vacant spot on the Westminster team. That squad has four returning lettermen who hold down four of the berths and Nelson is trying for the fifth spot. Among the boys he has to battle against for that fifth spot is an all-state man on last year's WPAL cage team. Next Saturday night in a doubleheader at Buffalo Memorial Auditorium, the Boys from Westminster battle the Oklahoma Aggies, one of the nation's best cage fives. . . . Ted Black, former high school footballer, is now in the Pacific with the Marines. . . . J. B. Leitz announced that the 1945 football team has scheduled an encounter with the DuBois, Pa., grid squad—a night game to be played on October 5th. . . . Many of the buck hunters, who traveled from far and wide to join the Warren County invasion by the red-coats, of them blamed the poor hunting in the overflow of snow. . . . The Warren Field and Stream Club has succeeded in promoting one of the finest ideas for sportsmen in that they published a leaflet listing homes where the out-of-town hunters could find accommodations. A pat on the back to the club as well as Jay Pees, who headed the committee. . . . The National Forge cage quintet will practice tonight on the YM floor in preparation for the opening game of this winter's city loop against Struthers' team on Thursday night. . . . Best wishes for a quick recovery for Dick Finley, unique court player on last season's H. S. basketball team who underwent an operation at the hospital this morning. . . . Keep your eye on that fella named Al Babcock, the big, blonde guard who dropped five in the hoop in the Dragon-Eagle fray Friday eve. . . . Regrets of sorrow to the suckers who spotted Navy some twenty points and lost. . . . A backer is needed for a high school girls' basketball team which desires to enter the YW loop. How 'bout it? . . . Corry Hi showed up a lot stronger than this corner expected Friday night even though they did take a 33-20 trimming from Strong Vincent. . . . How about getting down to business on starting plans for a complete recreation field so that when the hundreds of boys come home from the fighting fronts they will have something to do instead of sitting around. They deserve it, by all means. . . .

Cows, if fed and milked three times daily, instead of two, will increase milk production from 10 to 25 per cent.
